

Guided Reading Activity 2

Climate Regions

Directions: Outlining Use your textbook to complete the outline below.

- I. _____ cover much of the region.
 - A. The _____ covers almost all of North Africa.
 - B. Dry riverbeds that fill with water when it rains are called _____.
 - C. The large sand dunes found here are called _____.
 - D. _____ are areas where the land is fertile as a result of water from a spring or well.
- II. Dry, grassy plains called _____ border deserts.
 - A. _____ move constantly in search of food and water for their herds.
 - B. Farmers in these areas practice _____.
- III. Other climate areas include _____, humid subtropical, and highland climates.
 - A. _____ areas in North Africa, the eastern Mediterranean, and Turkey support agriculture and large populations.
 - B. A humid subtropical climate is found in a small part of _____.
 - C. Highland climates are found in _____ areas.
- IV. _____ is sparse in the region, and it evaporates quickly.
 - A. Some countries draw water from _____, or underground rock layers through which water flows.
 - B. Some countries limit, or _____, water.
 - C. Some countries use _____, a process that makes seawater drinkable.